Summer Raft Trip 2009

August 7-9

Join your friends for another journey on the Delaware River for some relaxin' and raftin'.

Our campsite is Jerry's Three Rivers, just north of Port Jervis, NY - where PA, NJ and NY meet - and is about three hours from Philly.

❖ Friday, we make our way up to Jerry's (Pond Eddy, NY) during the evening hours, arriving anywhere from 6pm to 2am (it's a 3ish hour drive). That night it's games at the table, fun around the campfire and glow stuff in the woods.

❖ Saturday, we wake up (at some point), enjoy a yummy camp breakfast and head across the street. We begin our rafting sometime before noon and travel about 5 hours or so downstream to Port Jervis. At the finish, Jerry's folks pick us up and take us back to the campsite. We sit around the campfire, cook dinner and then settle in for more fun and games!

❖ Sunday, it's pack up, good-byes, breakfast at Homer's and a quiet trip home.

The weekend is $95, which includes two nights camping, one day of rafting, Friday night snacks, Saturday breakfast, lunch and dinner, lots of liquids, games, and other silly things.

You should bring:

Sleeping bag or reasonable facsimile, tent (if you have one - I have extras), pillow, sheet, blanket, swimsuit, grungy/boating shoes for rafting, sunblock, towels, camp-y things, hat, flashlight, and whatever else you want! It's a private campground, so they have showers, electrical outlets, etc.

Please clip and return this to Ed real soon!
