

www.clubedventures.com

Summer Camping/Floating Trip 2026

July 17-19

Join your friends on another journey down the Delaware River for some relaxin' & raftin'.

❖ Friday, we make our way up to Outpost Campground (www.theoutpostny.com) during the evening hours, arriving anywhere that evening (it's a 3ish hour drive). If you haven't had dinner, the Outpost Restaurant is nearby for a nice dinner! That night we hang out around the fire. And games!

❖ Saturday, we wake up, enjoy a yummy camp breakfast and head across the street for some floating on a raft (and tubes)! The trip downstream takes about 6 hours with lots of scenic views and a few rapids (nothing major) - we travel at a very leisurely rate (this is NOT a race), so be prepared to relax. Lunch will be available as we float down the Delaware. That evening, we sit around the campfire, most likely mosey back over to the Outpost Restaurant and then settle in for more fun and games!

❖ Sunday, it's pack up, good-byes, breakfast at the Village Diner and a quiet trip home.

The weekend is $200, which includes two nights camping, one day of rafting, snacks, Saturday breakfast and lunch, lots of liquids, fun campfire games & other silly things.

You should bring:

Sleeping bag or reasonable facsimile, tent (if you don't have one - I have extras), pillow, sheet, blanket, swimsuit, grungy/boating shoes for rafting, sunblock, towels, camp-y things, hat, flashlight, and whatever else you want! It's a private campground, so they have showers, electrical outlets, etc. Feel free to bring more snacks and refreshments!!!

Our campsite is Outpost Campground, 2333 State Route 97, Pond Eddy, New York 12770, just north of Port Jervis, NY

Please clip and return this to Ed real soon!

Edward Wagner, 246 E. Waverly Road, Wyncote, PA 19095

___ Yes Ed, I am coming on this exciting trip! Here's my $200

Name(s): _____

Phone number for contacting: _____

Email for contacting: _____

Amount enclosed: _____

Car? (Yes / No) If yes, then it fits _____ people and gear.

Tent? (Yes / No) If yes, then it fits _____ people besides me.

Halp! I don't have _____

I can leave Friday about _____ pm.

I prefer to paddle / steer / shout orders / sit near the beer.

More info – contact Ed at info@clubedventures.com